

The incumbent projection is not the Euclidean projection (torus $T(1.0, 0.6)$, $V = 128$)

The incumbent fixed point is far from the true projection (grows with crispness)

Both are feasible, but the incumbent is strictly farther from Y (suboptimal)

